

Tips for Recruitment Day

You've made it to the Recruitment Day, now it's your time to shine. This is a professional environment, so make sure you dress to impress. Our eight tips help you to present your best self on the day.

1. Arrive early.

On the day, make sure you know exactly where you're going. If you have some time to spare beforehand, you can settle your nerves and be better prepared.

2. Be yourself.

The activities during the Recruitment Day give you lots of opportunities to show us who you are. Everybody is in the same boat and those who can relax and enjoy the occasion tend to demonstrate the traits that got them there in the first place.

3. Embrace it.

This is an important step towards securing the role. Be prepared to participate in a variety of assessments and testing, both in groups and individually. The Recruitment Day gives you a taste of the kinds of fast-paced work environments we have at Flight Centre Travel Group. Be prepared to step outside your comfort zone.

4. Be a team player.

Work with your fellow participants at the Recruitment Day. They are your colleagues, not your competitors. Our recruiters are assessing your behaviour, attitude and knowledge and also how you interact with others.

5. Come with the right attitude.

Every interaction you have with a recruiter or other participants on the day is part of the assessment. Listen carefully to the recruiters. Show respect for your fellow participants.

6. Speak clearly.

It's vital that you contribute. Speak clearly and audibly so our recruiters can hear what you have to say.

7. Give it your best shot.

The Recruitment Day is like a dress rehearsal. Imagine yourself in the role and think about the skills and behaviours that you would need to be successful in the role. Wherever possible, you need to demonstrate these skills and behaviours as you participate in different activities during the Assessment Day.

8. Don't leave with unanswered questions.

Ask as many relevant questions as you need to in order to accept a potential offer. Ensure that you leave with the knowledge that this is the right role and right company for you.
